THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE GODA RAGHURAM

W.P.No. 17362 of 2006

Oral order:

The writ petition is based on a misapprehension bordering on a phobia. The petitioners claim to have entered into a wedlock contrary to the wishes of the parents of the 1st petitioner. It is stated that after marriage between them at Arya Samaj, New Delhi registered on 18-08-2006, the father of the 1st petitioner being against the marriage lodged a complaint that the 1st petitioner is a minor aged about fourteen (14) years. This was also published in local editions of news papers in Vijayawada such as Andhra Joythi and Eenadu. On the basis of such publication, the petitioners apprehend that there is a threat to their life and that the 1st petitioner's father would influence the police and other media to separate the petitioners. The petitioners also apprehend that the respondents would register false cases against the petitioners based on the complaints lodged by the father of the 1st petitioner that the 1st petitioner is a minor, the 2nd petitioner had enticed her and married her by force.

There is no assertion in the writ petition setting out any overt action by any of the respondents to support the apprehensions of the petitioners.

A writ petition is not a vehicle to assuage every fear of a citizen. Unless there is a reasonable basis for apprehending illegal action from the State or any State actor, no Mandamus will issue. There are no merits. The writ petition is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
